

Jackson County Sentinel

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT GAINESBORO, TENN.

E. W. TARDY, Editor
G. R. GAILBREATH, Business Manager

Subscription price, $1.00 per year.

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice in Gainesboro, Tenn., under Acts of Congress, 1879

THURSDAY, July 3, 1919

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

ONE YEAR	$1.00
6 MONTHS	.60
3 MONTHS	.35

STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

Mrs. Belle Hackett.

Mrs. Belle Hackett, age 52 years, wife of J. C. Hackett, a well known merchant of the second district, died at her home Wednesday, June 25th, after a lingering illness of several months. She had been confined to her bed since undergoing an operation at the St. Thomas Hospital, last March. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, W. V. and Orville Brooks, children by her first husband, W. H. Brooks, dec'd., one sister, Miss Ona Holland, of Bagdad, three brothers, A. M. Holland, of Gainesboro, Frank Holland, of Bowling Green, Ky., Clarence Holland, of Salt Lick.

Funeral service was held Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. W. N. Dycus, with interment in the Brooks cemetery.

Mrs. Hackett was a member of the M. E. Church South, and a noble christian woman.

Soldiers Return.

W. P. McDearman, who has been in the army for the past year, has received his discharge and arrived home Sunday night. He served six months in France with the 317th Machine Gun Co., of the Wildcat division. Mr. McDearman missed getting into action by only one day, the Armistice being signed on the day his company was to go to the front.

Luther Johnson, who has also been with the American Expeditionary Forces in France for the past year, came in Sunday night. Mr. Johnson, who resides in the 11th district of this county, was a member of the 323rd M. G. Company.

Albert Roberts, son of Joe C. Roberts of R-4, reached Gainesboro, Friday, June 27th, en route home from France, where he has been giving a good account of himself for the past 11 months. He was a member of the 321st Machine Gun Company, under Capt. Jim Quarles, and in action on the Verdun and Argonne fronts, and several minor skirmishes, where he showed remarkable bravery.

Joe Stubblefield, another Jackson county boy, who has been with the army in France, for nearly a year, passed thru town Friday, en route to his home on Indian creek. He was a member of the 321st Infantry, and was in action on the Argonne and Verdun fronts.

Sergeant Major Charles Eugene Settle, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Settle of this city, who has been with the Americans in France for the past year, returned Saturday morning. Sergeant Settle displayed remarkable courage and initiative in the commanding of a section during a battle, for which he was decorated by the Marshall of the French Armies. Prior to his enlisting in the army, two years ago, he held a responsible position with a railroad company in Dallas, Texas, which position he will resume, after a week's visit with his parents.

Willie Light, of Gainesboro, R-2, arrived from France last Thursday, where he served with Co. M., 324 Inf., 81 division for 12 months. He served as gunner and saw some hard fighting on the Verdun, Argonne, and St. Michel fronts.

Charles Gentry, of R-1, who was for 12 months with the 321 Inf. in France, arrived home last Thursday. He saw active service for four months on the Argonne, Verdun and St. Michel fronts, going through some hard fighting without a scratch.

Further proceeding in the lumacy trial of S. M. Heady, of near Stone, was heard before Judge B. C. Jones, Monday. The case was dismissed after the doctor's statement under oath that the defendant was not a fit subject for the insane asylum. The state was represented by P. J. Anderson, the defendant by H. Grady Gore and B. C. Butler.

Lynn-Tinsley.

Mr. Samuel Lynn, of Tinsley's Bottom, Miss Margett Tinsley, of Gainesboro, were married Sunday evening at 4.30 o'clock, while seated in an automobile near the Roaring river bridge, Rev. W. N. Dycus performing the ceremony.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Lynn, of Tinsley's Bottom, and a young man of sterling character, while the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tinsley, dec'd., and a young lady of many graces and charm of character. They have a host of friends, who extended their hearty congratulations.

They will make their home in Tinsley's Bottom, where Mr. Lynn is one of the leading young farmers.

'Uncle' Dave Tyree, of Gladico, was in town Tuesday.

Sterling McDearman left Wednesday for Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. White Myers, of Gladico, and her sister, Miss Estelle Gailbreath, of Gainesboro, R-4, were shopping in town Tuesday.

Dr. Byrns' car was stolen from his garage Monday night and returned Tuesday night. He hasn't any idea who did it. The car was damaged considerably.

W. C. Davidson, and J. Gore, of Celina, motored thru Gainesboro Tuesday, enroute to Nashville. They were accompanied by Judge C. E. Snodgrass, who was returning to his home at Crossville, after holding court at Celina.

The old Slimy Slicker Snake has crawled out into a nice shade and penned us a few lines, which we are glad to publish. We are always delighted to publish his articles.

July term of Criminal Court will convene here Monday, July 7. While attending court don't forget to drop around, to the office and subscribe for your home paper. Don't wait for an invitation, you are as welcome as the flowers in May any day.

Nathan Roberts has accepted a position as manager of the Draper & McCawley Co., garage, succeeding W. C. Roberts & Son, who have been conducting the business for the past ten months. Nathan is well qualified for the place, and will make the company a good man. He is anxious to have his friends, and owners of automobiles, to call and see him. He will carry a general line of Ford accessories, and a first-class mechanic, will do the repairing and mending breaks.

Miss Grace Ragland, a yeoman (F.) in the U. S. Navy, stationed in the navy yard at Washington, D. C., is in Carthage this week spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. L. L. Ragland. She will return to Washington Saturday. Miss Ragland and Miss Bessie Tribble of Watertown, both of whom volunteered their services to the government last year, are the only young ladies from the Fourth Congressional District enlisted in the naval service. —Carthage Courier.

LOCALS

J. W. Jenkins, of Stone, visited the office Monday.

Lee Sadler, of Rough Point, is visiting his son, W. F. Sadler.

H. L. Baugh of Flynn's Lick, was here Wednesday en route to Nashville.

G. Lee McGlasson, clerk of county court was in Nashville first of the week.

Marcus Robbins, of Nashville, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Hampton.

Nathan Roberts spent several days last week in Cincinnati, Ohio, on business.

Mrs. P. J. Anderson, visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Page in Granville first of the week.

Mrs. Fillmore Roddy, of Nashville, was the guest of Mrs. Minnie McDearman, first of the week.

Miss Lucy Draper, after a pleasant visit of two weeks with relatives here, has returned to her home in Chattanooga.

U. H. Long, a well known farmer of Haydenburg, R-1, came in Tuesday and renewed his subscription for another year.

Misses Winnie Page and Bonnie Gene Gailbreath, of Granville, were visitors here Sunday. They were accompanied by Messrs Daniels and Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wooten, and little son, of Nashville, are on a visit to Mrs. Wooten's mother, Mrs. Sadie Young. Mr. Wooten, is with the Missouri State Life Insurance Co.

Miss Lora Young, stenographer for the Hix Realty Company at Nashville, is here for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Sadie Young.

G. H. Spurlock, of Nashville, who has been visiting relatives here several days, has returned home. Mr. Spurlock added his name to our mailing list for a year.

Andy Vanhooser, of Stone, was one of the pleasant visitors with us this week. Mr. Hooser, says crops are looking good over his way, but a good rain would be welcome anytime.

Mr. and Mrs. John Willis, of Oklahoma, were in Gainesboro Monday, en route home from Clay county, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Pearson. Mr. Willis is well known in Clay county, having lived there several years, and was an extensive lumber dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Williams and two daughters, and Mrs. Kibbie Gardenhire, of Tinsley's Bottom, Mrs. Nannie Stone and daughter, Miss Annie Stone, of Celina, and Mrs. Mary Herod, of Texas, were in Gainesboro last Friday. Mesdames Gardenhire, Stone and Herod are sisters of the late W. K. Tinsley, and were here on legal business in connection with their brother's estate.

Dr. Richmond Duvall, of Atlanta, Ga., and his uncle, Frank Richmond, of Cookeville, passed thru Gainesboro Saturday enroute to Red Boiling Springs. They were accompanied by the doctor's mother-in-law, Mrs. Ellen Price, of Atlanta, and her neice, Miss Sallie Eagles, of Tasboro, N. C. Dr. Duvall, who spent his boyhood days in Jackson county, has a number of relatives in different parts of the county, whom he will visit. Mrs. Duvall and children, who stopped in Cookeville, will join them this week at the Springs.

Fred Maxey, of Celina, was in Gainesboro Saturday. While here he purchased a Ford touring car of our local agents, Draper & McCawley Co. Fred fully intended starting home early Sunday morning, but owing to environments, and the solicitation of new acquaintances, he prolonged his visit until Monday morning. From all reports Fred is pretty well established in this community, and is expected to make his visits to Gainesboro oftener and more regular, in the future.

Buy A Standard Instrument A PATHEPHONE

Made and Guaranteed By

The Pathe Freres Co.,

PARIS, LONDON, NEW YORK.

Buy a Standard Record a

The best singers, players and performers in the world assist in making the Pathe Records.

The Pathephone uses the Saphire Ball instead of a sharp metallic needle. A record when played with a Pathe Saphire Ball will play 1000 times. Your needles and records do not wear out. The scratching, metallic sound is eliminated. The music is not scratched off, but flows off the record. The Pathephone is the most perfect reproducing instrument in the world. When you are buying, why not buy the best, buy a PATHE.

QUARLES & McCAWLEY CO., Sole Agents

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Remember that when you bring your Ford car to us for mechanical attention that you get the genuine Ford service—materials, experienced workmen and Ford factory prices. Your Ford is too useful, too valuable to take chances with poor mechanics, with equally poor quality materials. Bring it to us and save both time and money. We are authorized Ford dealers; trusted by the Ford Motor Company to look after the wants of Ford owners—that's the assurance we offer. We are getting a few Ford cars and first come first to receive delivery.

DRAPER & McCAWLEY, Agents
Gainesboro, Tenn.

Sumner County Farms.

Do you want a Sumner County Blue Grass Farm. We have some of the best farms in Sumner County listed, and that means the best in the world. Write us and make appointment to look them over.

Brown & Walker,
Gallatin, Tenn.

The Germans are said to be planning a flight across the Atlantic. We wonder where they intend to land.

People who pay two cents a copy to read a newspaper think they are getting little or nothing for their money.

Big Reduction In Prices on Fairbanks Engines 10 H. P. type "Z" Engine and 20 inch Meadows Mill $450

F. O. B. Factory

This is a reduction of $90.00

QUARLES & McCAWLEY CO.

Returned Soldiers Notice.

Every returned soldier that visits our store during the next 30 days will be given 10 per cent off on each purchase he makes amounting to over 50 cents.

We carry a full line of Summer Shirts, Hats, Neckwear, Belts, Underwear, Hosiery and Shoes.

Pate Bros. & Co.

Gainesboro, Tenn.